

ZINEB “Z” MOUSSAFIR

ELLE AESTHETIC ARTS AND PLASTIC SURGERY
DIRECTOR OF MEDICAL AESTHETICS AND PARTNER

An expert in treating any skin challenge, Zineb Moussafir, also known as “Z,” provides custom aesthetic treatment plans for her clients at Elle Aesthetic Arts and Plastic Surgery. Focused on nonsurgical facial rejuvenation and body contouring, Moussafir’s success is thanks to her authenticity, positive mindset and ability to listen.

“My culture of practice is relationship building, educating patients and understanding their aesthetic goals to help guide them to their personal and holistic wellness,” says Moussafir. “We have the latest and greatest devices at our practice that give us the luxury of offering different treatment options to patients to fit every lifestyle.”

Moussafir specializes in treatments such as AquaGold Therapy, Ultherapy, Emsculpt Neo, microneedling, CoolSculpting, BBL Corrective and many more. She believes making self-care a priority not only boosts her clients’ appearances but fills their souls with positivity and their lives with productivity.

“My business partner Dr. Larry Lickstein and I are looking forward to continued growth and expansion so that we can reach more patients and have a greater impact on their quality of life,” she says. “We are aiming for it to be a destination for patients to have amazing experiences and for employees to find a home to be empowered and grow.”

This Dynamic Woman is excited about the recent launch of Elle Aesthetic’s unprecedented membership program, which will allow patients to reach their optimum goals while following their yearly aesthetic plan.

“This program will give us an opportunity to prove to our patients the power of aesthetics through their results with consistency,” says Moussafir.

ELLE AESTHETIC ARTS AND PLASTIC SURGERY

To find the most comprehensive aesthetic center in Loudoun County, head to Elle Aesthetic Arts and Plastic Surgery, where Dr. Larry Lickstein, a board-certified plastic surgeon, and Director of Medical Aesthetics Zineb "Z" Moussafir blur the boundaries between plastic surgery and cosmetic medicine. With over 20 years of experience, Dr. Lickstein is known as a "Top Doc" by local, regional and national publications. Revered for his aesthetic procedures, he is often sought after to train other providers on the most effective and safest injection techniques.

Moussafir has almost two decades of experience in the medical and aesthetic fields and is also a highly sought-after consultant in the industry. With a large and loyal patient following, she is frequently asked by aesthetic companies to review devices and is in great demand as a lecturer at aesthetic academies. At Elle Aesthetic Arts and Plastic Surgery, Dr. Lickstein and Moussafir work together to guide clients to elevated health, beauty, confidence and well-being through contemporary laser therapy and advanced skin care treatments. They are also known for advanced body contouring, breast surgery (including complex revision) and contemporary techniques of facial rejuvenation.

Procedures include aesthetic plastic surgery of the face, breast, and body; Sciton laser resurfacing; CoolSculpting Elite; IV therapies; platelet rich fibrin; customizable AquaGold; and more. "We provide boutique, personalized care and offer comprehensive services for the face and body," they say. "By employing surgical and nonsurgical treatments in an environment that emphasizes luxury, hospitality and safety, we're able to accomplish our mission of improving our patients' happiness and quality of life."

Destination for Elevated Aesthetics."

What is your niche?

Elle Aesthetic Arts is the largest and most comprehensive aesthetic and wellness center in Loudoun County, offering plastic surgery services; advanced injectables; the most contemporary devices for skin, fat and muscle; and medical-grade skin care. We provide a luxury boutique experience and develop relationships with our patients so we can guide them on a journey of meaningful personal transformation.

What is your particular expertise?

Dr. Lickstein is an expert in advanced body contouring, cosmetic breast surgery, facial and eyelid rejuvenation, and advanced injectables. Zineb has almost two decades of experience in dermatology and plastic surgery and has expertise in nonsurgical body contouring, nonsurgical facial rejuvenation and full-body aesthetics.

What is new in your business this year?

We recently added IV therapies. In 2023, we are excited to introduce membership plans that will allow our patients to more easily take advantage of our offerings.

How do you encourage patients to feel their best?

Most patients are vulnerable when they first come in. Our mission is to emphasize their best features and facilitate a change in mindset to accept and love themselves. During this journey, we establish open communication to best understand their aesthetic goals so that we can help them achieve results they can't get anywhere else!
